EXCLUSIVE RETREAT VENUE HIRE | ERYRI, NORTH WALES

A private countryside setting for thoughtful, beautifully hosted retreats

Space to gather Room to breathe

Tawelu is an exclusive-use retreat venue set on a peaceful family farm in the foothills of Eryri. Three characterful cottages, a dedicated yoga studio and generous gardens create an intimate home for residential retreats.

Designed for groups who value calm, privacy and time together, the venue gives hosts the freedom to shape their own programme while we help with the practical details behind the scenes.

You bring the programme

Meals, teachers and treatments are not included in the venue hire. You choose your own team and create the retreat you want to lead. We can recommend trusted local suppliers and help you plan.

Exclusive venue hire

THURSDAY TO MONDAY

£3,600 + VAT

Your retreat team can arrive on Thursday to settle in and prepare the spaces. We will be there to welcome them, show them around and help with the practical details. Their guests then arrive on Friday for the start of the retreat.

A 30% non-refundable deposit secures your dates. The remaining balance is due one month before arrival.

Availability is limited to protect the quiet, private feel of the venue.

Practical support for your retreat

You remain in control of your teaching, guest experience and schedule. We share local knowledge and useful contacts so the planning feels lighter.

Catering

Introductions to trusted local caterers who understand residential retreats.

Massage

Contacts for therapists and use of the venue massage bed.

Marketing

A selection of Tawelu images to help you sell your retreat with confidence.

Local Planning

Ideas for walks from the door and guidance on making the most of the setting.
